

YOUNG AMATEURS RADIO CLUB

Constitution

Preamble:

The name of this organization is Young Amateurs Radio Club. It shall be our purpose to further the exchange of information and cooperation between young members of the amateur radio community, to promote radio knowledge, fraternalism and individual operating efficiency, and to advance the general interest and welfare of Amateur Radio in the youth community.

Article I. Membership

Membership shall be open to any person who actively supports the purpose of the Young Amateurs Radio Club as set forth in this document. We reserve the right to decline membership to anyone the board deems to not represent the goals and mission of this organization.

It should be noted that, as the Young Amateurs Radio Club, applying members are expected to be within a certain age range. However, it is ultimately up to the board to decide whether a member is eligible.

Article II. Officers

Sec. 1. The officers of this club shall be President, Vice-President and Treasurer.

Sec. 2. The positions of President and Vice President, if permanently vacated, shall be filled through a nomination and vote of the membership.

Sec. 3. The Treasurer shall be appointed by a unanimous decision of the president and vice president.

Sec. 4. A member shall be designated as the Amateur Radio License Trustee. The Trustee shall establish and maintain an Amateur Radio Club Station for the use of the licensed members of Young Amateurs Radio Club and other licensed radio amateurs, and shall carry out the duties designated by the Federal Communication Commission for the trustee of this station. In the event that the trustee can no longer perform the duties of Trustee, he shall designate another Society member who holds an amateur license to apply to the FCC to succeed him as trustee. The president shall concur in the selection of this new Trustee.

Article III. Duties of Officers

Sec. 1. The President shall enforce due observance of this Constitution and By-Laws; decide all questions of order; sign all official documents adopted by the club, and perform all other duties pertaining to the office of President. Meeting minutes of Young Amateurs Radio Club are maintained by the President at his/her discretion.

Sec. 2. The Vice-President shall assume all the duties of the President in his/her absence.

Sec. 3. The Treasurer shall account for all monies paid to the club.

Article IV. Meetings

All meetings of Young Amateurs Radio Club shall be informal and may be called at the discretion of at least two officers, or singularly by the President. Such meetings may take place in person, over amateur radio or through other electronic communication means.

Article V. Dues

Young Amateurs Radio Club shall not collect dues unless deemed absolutely necessary by the officers for ongoing expenses required for the operation of the organization.

Article VII. Amendments

The constitution or By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of the total members of the board of directors. Proposals for amendments shall be submitted in writing (whether digitally or physical copy) at a regular meeting and shall be voted on at the next following regular meeting, provided all members have been notified at least one month in advance by mail or email of the intent to amend the constitution and/or By-Laws at said meeting.

Young Amateurs Radio Club

By-Laws

- 1. Organization. The name of this organization is the Young Amateurs Radio Club. It is organized as a non-profit amateur radio club within the meaning of section 501(c)(7) of The Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. 501(c)(7)) and section 5 of part 97 of the FCC Regulations supporting The Communications Act of 1934 (47 C.F.R. 97.5(d)(2)). However, no filing before the Internal Revenue Service for non-profit status shall be necessary as long as the organization does not maintain a treasury of its own.
- 2. Membership. Full membership is open to licensed amateurs in good standing as well as to those with an interest in Amateur Radio. Applications for membership shall be submitted at regular meetings and at any time using the internet.
- 3. Governing Board. The organization shall be governed by a Board of Directors. This Board shall be comprised of the club's FCC callsign trustee, any and all equipment (repeater) trustees, and a sufficient number of directors, of equal number or one less, but not less than 3, to maintain an odd count of directorships (at present, the directors are President, Vice President, and Treasurer, as well as a fourth Executive Director to maintain an odd number of members on the board). Each position on the Board shall have one vote (excluding the Vice President, who makes the final decision for the break of a tied vote, such as in the US Senate.). A member cannot be elected to more than one position. The trusteeship positions are not elected positions. However, with the acquisition of organization-owned equipment, or should a trusteeship become vacant without a successor named, the Board may appoint any member of the organization to that trusteeship position.

4. Election Procedure. Only members of the Young Amateurs Radio Club board of directors shall be eligible to vote. Each member shall be able to cast as many votes as there are elected positions to fill. Election to the Board shall occur for the candidate receiving the largest plurality of votes and continue to the next largest plurality until all positions are filled. Should there be a tie vote for any position where there are more candidates than elected positions remaining, the membership will vote again, considering only those candidates and with each member casting a number of votes equal to the number of positions remaining. Should there be an equal or lesser number of candidates seeking election to the Board, they shall be considered elected without an election having taken place. There are no term limits imposed on any elected position. As such, a member (excluding the President and Vice President) shall hold their board position unless impeached by unanimous vote of the other board members, or until said member steps down from their position.

5. Dues. The Board of Directors may set the necessary [annual] membership dues, which may not be increased by more than 25% of its current level without consent of a majority of the membership. The initial dues amount shall be zero, and any dues shall be collected in U.S. dollars.

6. Equipment and Property. Unless purchased with funds from the organization's treasury, all equipment used by the organization remains the property of the respective trustee. No rights shall affix to the equipment by virtue of its use by the organization or its members nor shall the ownership rights of the trustee be diminished. All equipment purchased by the organization itself, from its treasury, remain property of the organization and likewise, no right of ownership attaches to such by the appointed trustee (or his successor).

7. Ratification. The constitution and bylaws are hereby ratified on twelfth (12th) of March, in the year of two-thousand eighteen (2018), with the initial directors of the organization being:

David F. Mosden KD2OAH, President, Executive Director

Scott W. Stelloh KD2LWH, Vice President, Executive Director

Caleb Smith KZ0P, Treasurer, Executive Director

Benjamin L. Johnson AB3NJ, Trustee, Executive Director

Dominic Hord AD8AK, Executive Director
